Professional Reference for Tom Butler – Senior Motion Designer

I'm pleased to provide a reference for Tom Butler, who I've had the opportunity to work with in his role as Senior Motion Designer at Tilling Creative. Tom's positive attitude makes a noticeable difference day-to-day, and he helps keep our team environment friendly and collaborative.

Tom is a highly creative animator, always bringing fresh ideas and thoughtful solutions to his projects. He pairs this creativity with a methodical approach, ensuring that his work is well planned and delivered to a high creative and technical standard.

During his time with us, Tom also identified practical ways to streamline parts of our animation production process. The improvements he introduced made our workflow smoother and noticeably more efficient, which in turn helped make our projects more profitable.

Tom made a real difference to our team, and I have no doubt he'll be a great asset wherever he goes next.

Professional Reference for Tom Butler – Senior Motion Designer

Tom Butler is an exceptional graphics animator whose mastery of motion design, character animation, and After Effects consistently elevates every project. He brings creativity, precision, and a calm problem-solving mindset to even the most complex briefs.

Tom is a joy to work with, always positive, reliable, and highly collaborative. He enhances workflows by integrating the latest AI tools and contributes even more through his hidden strengths in website coding and digital implementation. Nothing is ever too difficult for him; he approaches challenges with enthusiasm and delivers beyond expectations.

Tom communicates clearly, supports his teammates, and brings genuine warmth to the team. His work is polished, imaginative, and consistently delivered on time. He is proactive, adaptable, and always pushing for better results. Any team would be fortunate to have him, and I recommend him without hesitation.
